Tourism under Concurrent List

1758. SHRI NANA DESHMUKH: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to bring Tourism under the Concurrent List;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor; and

(c) what concrete steps are being taken to remove dirt and filth, the beggars and unsanitary conditions in places of tourist interest so as to attract more tourists?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI JAGMOHAN): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The advantage of inclusion of 'tourism' in the Concurrent List of the Constitution is to provide both the Central and the State Governments with constitutional power to deal with problems of the tourism sector.

(c) Up-keeping of places of tourist interest is the responsibility of Local Municipalities and State Governments. However, Central financial assistance is provided by the Department of Tourism, Government of India to State Governments/Union Territory Administrations for development and maintenance of infrastructure including wayside amenities, upgradation-cum-expansion of existing tourist facilities etc.
